Students Bake an Old-Fashioned Cake at the Appomattox Primary School

Active learning occurs through trial and error when a child is encouraged to do something he wants to do, all by himself. With student teacher, Miss Welch, standing by as assistant chef, kindergarten children measured, mixed, sifted, squeezed and spilled ingredients into the bowl and on the table with all the built-in intensity and joy of an eager five year old! End results-An Old Fashioned Cake and growing confidence that he can learn to do things on his own.

Teresa Cyrus

FHA Girl of The Month

Teresa Cyrus was chosen as Future Homemaker's Girl of the Month for September. She has been a most active member and has participated in all activities.

She entered the Dress Review at the Five County Fair where she was selected as a 1st place winner. She helped clean the Home Ec Dept. before school opened and served at a faculty tea.

She substituted for the Federation Secretary at the Federation Planning meeting. She also attended the Leadership Conference.

She was President of the Junior Chapter last year and is serving as Reporter for the Sr. Chapter this year.

She is chairman of Publicity Committee and also of the Bulletin Board committee and a member of the money-making committee.

Teresa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Cyrus of Appomattox.

Adult Education Center Opens

The Appomattox County Adult Education Center opened last Thursday as Division Superintendent of Schools, Lloyd Walton cut the ribbon.

With Walton for the ribbon cutting ceremony was Mrs. Dorothy Turner , the first student to attend classes at the education center.

Rev. R. Q. Lawing gave the invocation prior to the symbolic cutting of the ribbon.

Walton told the assembled group, "This is just the beginning of great things to happen in this room. I want to commend the teachers, Mrs. Marbella Johnson and Mrs. Anne Ramsey for their initiative and Richard Carter for the work and effort he has put forth in making this center an reality."

Walton continued, "Although this group is small, we anticipate a large gathering here in the future. With over 2,400 people in the county with just an eighth grade education and approximately 400 who can neither read nor write, I feel sure that this will be a well used classroom."

The Adult Education Center is located in the Old Home Ec. section of the Appomattox Elementary School. Classes meet each Thursday at 7: p.m. and no advance registration is necessary.

Music, Arts & Crafts Feature of Festival

HISTORIC, EDUCATIONAL, FAMILY FUN - these words capture the feeling of the two day Historic Appomattox Railroad Festival to be held this week end. Festival hours are 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Sunday. Free Admission and Parking, with food and drink available on Main Street.

BLUE GRASS, COUNTRY WESTERN, and GOSPEL music will be featured on Saturday and Sunday, starting at 1 p.m. both days. Al Reynolds and the Drifters will start things off on Saturday, to be followed by the New Hope Singers and Rob Honeycutt and the Piedmont Playboys. Banjo and fiddle are always a welcomed sound down at the depot. Sunday music will be courtesy of the Hebron Baptist Church Youth Choir and again the Drifters. These groups deserve appreciation of all for their willingness to play free of charge for the community. And an added salute to the United States Army and the Liberty Youth Singers, who will provide free entertainment on Saturday evening. Don't forget to bring the family and board "The Bicentennial Limit" at 8 p.m. Saturday, Appomattox County H.S. Auditorium platform for an evening concert of patriotic music sponsored by the county's Bicentennia Commission.

Most of the daytime activity on Saturday and Sunday will be centered in and around the railroad station. The Historic Appomattox Station Arts and Crafts Center members will participate, together with independent craftsmen and artists from Appomattox and points West. Arts and crafts categories will include: quilts, dolls stuffed animals, cornhusk dolls, knitted and crocheted items, ceramics, wood, leather, basket weaving, pottery, decoupage, jewelry, sketches, and oil paintings. Come early for those sought after hand made Christmas gifts! Or, have a portrait of your child sketched by Mrs. Holsveig of Roanoke who will be on hand Sunday afternoon. Many of the craftsman will be conducting demonstrations. Take for instance Bert Peters of Pamplin. He'll be on hand again this year with Pyrography - that's spelled woodcarving and woodburning. Don't forget your best historic clothing - be it Colonial, Civil War, or Railroad. Railroad hats and patches available on Main Street.

And for the history minded (and aren't we all during this Bicentennial Era - in celebration of our nation's birth and heritage?) there are the EXHIBITS: Ed Schampel's train collection; relics explained by those Civil War buffs of our National Park - Paul Ghioto and Chris Calkins; a county kitchen set up as in the days of old; a period 1800 razor collection of Addeson Rider; an old Bible plus Confederate money; "In the Hearts and Minds of the People" - a Bicentennia Display on the American Revolution; and the Indians aren't left out, as arrowheads and tomahawks will be displayed. After all, Appomattox is named from the River, which was named from those who camped along its banks - the Indian Tribe called the APPOMATTUCKS!

Our hats - Colonial, Indian Headdress, Civil War, and Railroad - off to those ladies of the Art Department of the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club who have been responsible for all the hard work, Mrs. Patti Booker, Chief.

Burnett to Preach at Providence

The Reverend Omar Burnett will be the guest evangelist for the fall revival which begins at Providence Baptist Church at Red House on Sunday night, October 13, 1974. Mr. Burnett, a well known pastor in our area, was pastor at Providence for ten years, and we look forward to having him lead us in these services.

The following groups will be bringing special music during the week, along with the church choir. Mrs. Betty Rhodeniner, Mrs. William Trent. The Church Trio, The Fellowship Four, Rocks, Groups from Falling River Church.

Fellowship Group To Sponsor Bake Sale

The Youth Fellowship group from the Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church will sponsor a bake sale on Friday, October 11th, in front of Kings Market in the Triangle Plaza Shopping Center. The sale will begin at 5 p.m. and will continue until they have sold all baked items.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to apply toward the purchase of a water fountain for the church. The group invites you to stop by and buy from them.

Young Homemakers To Meet

An organizational meeting for the Appomattox Chapter, Young Homemakers of Virginia, will be held on Thursday, Oct. 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the home economics department at the high school. The purpose of this first meeting will be to organize and plan activities for the year. Appomattox will be host for the South Central Area meeting of YHV in November. This meeting will be held at the high school on Thursday afternoon, November 22, 1974.

Young Homemakers chapters are organized throughout the state of Virginia and in many other states. Some of the purposes are: To preserve, enrich and strengthen family living, to find new ways of working together to develop organized education, to share ways of improving family living, and to develop qualities and abilities necessary for creative leadership roles.

At the meeting on October 10th, members will plan programs on topics of interest related to home economics education. Some of the topics suggested are: Consumer Education, Child Development, Housing and Home Improvement, Living Together in the Family, Clothing, Foods, Family Finances, Home Management, Personal Growth, and others. A meeting night for November will be decided at this meeting to suit the majority of members.

Mrs. Betty Jo Smith, home economics teacher at Appomattox County High School, is advisor for the YHV chapter. Anyone who'd like to be a member of Young Homemakers is invited to come to the first meeting at 7:30 p.m. on October 10th, at the high school.
